CAMP DIRECTORS

Chris Waterbury
e-mail: waterburybcp@plattsburgh.edu

Now entering his 33rd season as head coach of the Plattsburgh State men’s soccer team, Chris Waterbury has directed the Cardinals to 26 straight winning seasons including 11 NCAA appearances, 2 ECAC Championships, and 8 SUNYAC titles.

In 2005, the Cardinals reached the NCAA Final Four and finished the season with a 22-2 record, the best record in Cardinal History.

Waterbury holds the advanced national and premier coaching diploma from the NCSAA. He also coaches youth teams for the Plattsburgh Football Club.

Geoff Spear
e-mail: speargm@plattsburgh.edu

Geoff Spear returns for his 22nd season of a second stint as the top assistant on Chris Waterbury’s coaching staff. Spear is involved with all aspects of the Cardinals program, and is primarily responsible for goalkeepers’ training.

During his first tour of duty at Plattsburgh State, Spear was an assistant to Waterbury from 1994-97, helping the Cardinals to a 61-14-2 mark during that span.

In addition to coaching, Spear has served as a state evaluator for the Olympic Development Program from 1996 to 1998. He holds an Advanced National Diploma from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America and a Level B coaching license from the U.S. Soccer Federation.

“I recommend Coach Waterbury’s soccer camp to any player that wants to develop the necessary skills and knowledge to play at a high level of competition”
- Pat Shaunessey
2015 Plattsburgh HS State Champions

“Great way for my players to get a jump on the upcoming season! Coach Waterbury and his staff offer fantastic technical and tactical training, helping players prepare for their upcoming season.”
- Tim Mulligan
Plattsburgh High School

“After having my players attend the preseason camp, I felt they were better prepared physically, technically and tactically for the start of the season.”
- Rob McAuliffe
Chazy Central High School
4x State Champion

“Camp is led by coaches who know exactly what it takes to succeed at the top level. The preparation and coaching players receive is unmatched and will give anyone a head start going into their soccer season”
- Chris Taylor
Clarkson University
Head Men’s Soccer Coach

“Great coaches, great training sessions, great competition. A camp for the player who is serious about success on the pitch.”
- Mark Misiak
Potsdam State
Head Women’s Soccer Coach
The camp’s main focus is on soccer skills development, fun soccer related games, introduction to team tactics and a variety of game competitions. Individual consideration will be given as to the appropriate level of instruction for each student. The camp is set up to shape young athletes, so that he or she will be ready for the upcoming season to gain a competitive edge against the competition.

Don’t be left out! Come join the Plattsburgh State Men’s Soccer team in a unique training camp for the serious high school player.